POLICY STATEMENT OF INTENT

It is the policy of Bill Rogerson Safety Services Ltd to comply with the terms of the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974 and subsequent legislation and to provide and maintain a healthy and safe working environment. Bill Rogerson Safety Services Ltd's health and safety objective is to minimise the number of instances of occupational accidents and illnesses and ultimately to achieve an accident-free workplace.

All employees will be provided with such equipment, information, training and supervision as is necessary to implement the policy and achieve the stated objective.

Bill Rogerson Safety Services Ltd recognise and accept the duty to protect the health and safety of all visitors and training delegates to the company, including contractors and temporary workers, as well as any members of the public who might be affected by our operations.

Whilst Bill Rogerson Safety Services Ltd will do all that is within its powers to ensure the health and safety of employees, it is recognised that health and safety at work is the responsibility of each and every individual associated with the company. It is the duty of each employee to take reasonable care of their own and other people's welfare and to report any situation which may pose a threat to the well being of any other person.

Bill Rogerson Safety Services Ltd will provide employees with the training necessary to carry out his or her tasks safely. However, if an employee is unsure how to perform a certain task or feels it would be dangerous to perform a specific job then it is the employee's duty to report this to the Managing Director. An effective health and safety program requires continuous communication between workers at all levels. It is therefore every worker's responsibility to report immediately any situation that could jeopardise the well being of themselves or any other person.

All injuries, however small, sustained by a person at work must be reported to the Managing Director. Accident records are crucial to the effective monitoring and revision of the policy and must therefore be accurate and comprehensive.

The Managing Director is committed to this Policy and to the implementation and maintenance of the highest standards of health, safety and welfare across the organisation and expects every member of the organisation to share this commitment to work together to achieve it.
